Street Assessments Thorn In City's Side

By Adoree Shortle
Echo Staff Writer

"This is the most distasteful thing I've ever done in my life," Bay St. Louis tax commissioner Arceaneaux said referring to the necessity of billing Bay St. Louis property owners for front footage taxes on the 1969 street repair bond issue.

Property owners were vociferous in their objections to the bond issue when it was originally proposed in 1967 and voted it down on two occasions.

The bond issue was put through without public vote in 1968 with the First National Bank of Memphis purchasing the bonds.

Citizens are even more irate now as time has come to pay the debt at the rate of $30,000 annual payments, incurring an assessment of $2 per front foot and a probability of more than four and a half mills for all tax payers.

The recurrent cry to the city tax commissioner from property owners with front footage assessments is against the unfairness of some of us paying for pre-Camille street repairs when others got their streets repaired free.

"In the first place," Arceaneaux said glumly, "people need to understand the differences in funding for the street programs that have been going on almost all year, which is why some are taxed, and some aren't."

Confusion on the part of citizens regarding the Bay St. Louis street repair programs is understandable when one considers that there have been three different programs completed this year. As each followed closely behind the other, it became increasingly difficult to distinguish one from the other.

Camille interrupted the first $750,000 street program begun in 1968 and funded under municipal bond indebtedness. At the same time, the hurricane opened doors to federal benefits for municipal and residential improvements, enabling city administrators to initiate a second street repair program at the conclusion of the first.

The second program, repairing streets not covered by the first, was totally funded by federal money. The third program, including only a few miles of street repair, was made possible through Interim Assistance Program funds allocated strictly for municipal street repair.

The city administration, however, is sympathetic to those taxpayers who happen to own property on streets repaired under the first program, which not only adds front footage taxes but may well increase next year's millage assessments for everyone.

"But the irrevocable fact remains," he stated, "that the debt has been incurred by the city, the work done, therefore must now be paid."

Those unfamiliar with the machinations of federal funding ask why some of the millions of federal dollars spent here can't be applied to retire the '68 bond indebtedness.

The federal government does not work that way - it works very much the same way a bank or savings and loan agency does. Application is made for a specific amount to finance a specific program. Funding granted must be utilized for the specified item, and no other.

Arceaneaux said, "Believe me I don't like having to assess this tax and if I could have found any way around it, I would have done it."

City and federal laws, conferred with attorneys and written to Jackson. There is no way out. "At least the majority of streets are now in better condition than they've been in a long time, and property taxes in the Bay are still as low as anywhere in South Mississippi."

In conclusion, Arceaneaux issued a reminder to taxpayers that Wednesday, September 8, at 10 a.m. is the deadline for filing objections as to ownership of property and the accuracy of assessments.

CONGRATULATIONS are in order to the numerous persons responsible for the above signs, finally erected on Highway 90 at each entrance to the city. Started a year ago, the sign project passed from hand to hand until last week, when through the efforts of the city council, the signs were completed, and erected.

Fireworks Display On Tap Sunday

What promises to be one of the most spectacular fireworks displays ever staged in Waveland is scheduled for Sunday at Coleman Avenue and the beach in Waveland.

Estimates are that more than 5,000 persons, a majority of them teenagers, will be on hand when Robert Lucas, chairman of the Fireworks Committee, gives the order for the Waveland Volunteer Fire Department to begin the colorful display at 8 p.m. Lucas estimates that it will require at least an hour for all of the fireworks to be consumed.

Prime sponsor of this annual event is the Waveland Civic Association, which has been sponsoring the fireworks display since 1967.

The fireworks display, which will be the most spectacular in our history, thanks to the help we have received from the City of Waveland, the City of Bay St. Louis, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors and from merchants in Waveland, Pass Christian, Bay St. Louis, Clermont Harbor, Lakeshore, and New Orleans.

The idea of the fireworks display was originally conceived as Waveland's way of saying thanks to the summer visitors from Hattiesburg, Jackson, New Orleans, Poyayune, and other cities. Traditionally, the Labor Day week-end marks the end of the season for the summer visitors because a vast majority have to return to their homes for the upcoming school season.

Originally, the display was the sole responsibility of the members of the Waveland Civic Association, which has been sponsoring the fireworks display since 1967.

The presentation came at a dinner held in the poon new Diamondhead Club and hosted by sales officials of the multi-million dollar corporation. Buzzy Prince, regional sales manager made the presentation to Buccola as well as a number of other sales representatives who had reached the $250,000 and $100,000 sales mark.

Buccola was the first land consultant to reach the half million dollar level at Diamondhead although several others have since reached and exceeded that amount, according to sales manager Hugh Moore.

HNC SET Hancock North Central Hawks first game of the season, against the Sunnall High team, will be played tomorrow evening at the Hancock N. Central field. Kickoff time is 7:30 p.m.

Coch Terry Randolph advises those wanting to get a good seat to get to the field early. He also said season tickets at $10 per couple are on sale and may be purchased at the school or at the gate prior to the game. Season tickets include six home games.

District Governor Visits Bay Rotary

Bay St. Louis Rotary welcomed Mr. C. Earl Colomb, District Governor of Rotary International, as guest speaker for their noon meeting Wednesday.

Colomb, a resident of St. Bernard Parish, is one of 32 Rotary governors throughout the world who are serving as representatives of Rotary International districts.

The Governor's district includes 30 Rotary clubs located in Southern Mississippi and Southeastern Louisiana.

Speaking of the global growth of Rotary, an international men's service organization, the district governor said, "Rotary is the pioneer of service clubs and today numbers more than 15,000 clubs with a combined membership of more than 700,000 business or professional men. Spread throughout 149 countries in all parts of the world, Rotary clubs conduct activities to improve their communities, aid youth, elevate business standards, and further international friendship and understanding."

Mr. Colomb is a prominent realtor in Chalmette, Louisiana, and has been well known in the New Orleans area for 40 years. He has been active in civic affairs and has served as president of the Young Men's Business Club of New Orleans, an officer of the International Trade Mart, International House, and the New Orleans Area Chamber of Commerce.

He is a founder of the local and National Association of Home Builders and has served as president of the Local Association and as national vice-president.

He is a member of the St. Bernard Rotary Club, has a 31-year perfect attendance record, and served as its president during the 1967-68 year.

The district governor also conferred with the Board of Directors of the local club including Fred Wagner, club president, Gus Drain, vice-president, Carl Smith, secretary, and officers Terry Feeney, Talley Rayburn, Bob Hamilton and Charles Lampa.

Logan further judged that as landowners in the subdivision, the group by bringing suit have caused a cloud to be placed upon their title to the very property through which they claim to have been injured in this lawsuit.

Circuit Judge Floyd Logan ruled last week in favor of the City of Bay St. Louis in a suit involving the Hancock Heights subdivision.

A group of property owners in the subdivision, situated in the North Bay area, filed a Bill of Exceptions against the city's decision to approve and accept the plat on April 5 this year, arguing that the plat was not valid according to city regulations governing subdivision approval.

In January 1968 a plat for Hancock Heights, Section 2, was approved by the City Commission Council although not recorded on the minutes of the Council, and in March that year.

After March '68 lots in the subdivision were sold and city and county taxes assessed based on the property description in the disputed plat. Sometime later the subdivision property reverted, through unpaid indebtedness, to the First National Bank of Mobile, mortgage holder.

Owner of most of the undeveloped portion of the subdivision, Clover Construction Co. of Bay St. Louis purchased 10 lots in the subdivision and in early spring began construction on these houses.

Residents in the subdivision then filed objection before the Commission Council, against the building permits issued by the city to Clover Construction, as being in violation of the city's building code, as well as contested the validity of the plat.

A stop order on Clover's construction was issued by the city and the county court considered the suit and took proper action on the stop order.

The court decision was made on the following grounds: "At the time of recording the plat of Hancock Heights had not complied with the statutory steps as set forth in the subdivision regulations of the City of Bay St. Louis, therefore it could not validly be accepted by the city at that time."

The opinion went on to state that any objections to the plat should have been filed then. Also since lots have been sold and taxes assessed "it would appear that the offer of dedication of the subdivision has been accepted as implied from the foregoing facts."

The judgment of the Commission Council on April 5 was, according to Logan, "merely an act ratifying or approving an acceptance of the dedication of the subdivision... which had already occurred."

Property owners in their suit alleged that they had been deprived of their property without due process of law by the city's action on April 5. The court affirmed that "nowhere in the record does there appear any evidence that the applicants have been harmed, injured or damaged in any way as a result of the acceptance of the plat."

Logan further judged that as landowners in the subdivision, the group by bringing suit have caused a cloud to be placed upon their title to the very property through which they claim to have been injured in this lawsuit.

Area Schools Adopt Free Lunch Policy

Principals of all area schools listed below today announced a free and reduced price lunch policy for students unable to pay the full price. Local school officials have adopted the following family size and income scale to assist them in determining eligibility:

ALL FAMILIES: 1 below $3040; 2 below $3270; 3 below $3510; 4 below $3840; 5 below $4200; 6 below $4510; 7 below $4820; 8 below $5170; 9 below $5520; 10 below $5820; 11 below $6120; 12 below $6400.

For each additional family member, add $400. Families falling within these scales or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free or reduced price lunches for their children. They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year.

The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

Under the provisions of the policy the school principal will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official, he may make a request either orally or in writing to the designated official to appeal the decision. Hearing procedures are outlined in the policy.

The policy also provides that there will be no discrimination on the basis of race, color, or religion in the distribution of free or reduced price lunches.

A complete copy of the policy is on file in the office of the principal where it may be reviewed by any interested person. Schools providing free and reduced lunch policy and respective hearing officials:

LABOR DAY

A DAY OF RELAXATION... A DAY OF RETROSPECTION

Enjoy yourselves, you've earned it. It's the last big outdoor holiday of the year, so let's sit back and enjoy it. But in our enjoyment let us not forget why we celebrate this great day. It's a day honoring the labors of the American worker, to whom we owe the industrial growth, development, and prosperity that means a better way of life for us all. We salute the American worker for these hard earned attainments as we observe Labor Day.

Edward Everett Hale's "The Man Without a Country" is more widely read than perhaps any book ever printed. In many schools it is "must" reading. It concerns an American officer, convicted of treason, who by his own will was banished from his country. For more than a hundred years it has been accepted by most readers as a true page in history. Yet it never happened; it is pure fiction except for the name of the "hero", Philip Nolan.

There was, before the war, a real Philip Nolan, and he lived for many years in the last part of his life right here in Mississippi. He came to Natchez in his 30's after an adventurous career of rounding up wild horses in Mexico, during which he incurred the enmity of powerful Spanish and Mexican officials. He was a saturnine and moody young man, but many people liked him, and he became the friend of most of the influential people in the American settlement at Natchez, who constantly suspected and intrigued the Spanish Governor, Gayoso, and his staff.

Soon after Nolan's arrival in Natchez, Gayoso was recalled to New Orleans, and Spain made a surprising move: she appointed the very popular American, Stephen (or Estaban) Minor, Governor of the Mississippi River colony, and Governor Minor moved to the official residence, the fabulous Concord mansion. This beautiful house was said to have been partially built of parts of ships abandoned at Natchez after sailing up the river from the sea, and the story was that a carriage could be driven right into it through a wide doorway in the front. Another architectural feature was two sets of marble stairs of different materials.

Fire Dept. Receives Contribution
Pearlington's Volunteer Fire Department is on the move according to secretary Mrs. Ann Treadin, who reports a current membership of 55. Guests at the last meeting, Thursday night, were: Mr. and Mrs. Omer De Bever, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Young, Mr. and Mrs. John David, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny county Civil Defense Director, Wainman, Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. A. Russ, county supervisor, Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Garland Belote insurance agent, Belote, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Julius Kemer, Edward Fricker, Soles and Mr. and Mrs. L. Bay St. Louis, Fire Chief, Mathews, Dr. and Mrs. John L. Jerry Ladner, Democratic Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley nominee for supervisor and a Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Howard number of others.

Among donations of equipment made to the new volunteer group were a 600-gallon tank and a truck from C. A. Russ on which to mount the tank, giving the fire department its first fire fighting equipment. Another gift from Mr. Belote came in the form of the first of annual check in the amount of $200 sent for each State Farm insurance policy in the area, as well as cash donations from new members of the volunteer department. Mrs. H. G. Dean heads a committee of eight assistants who will contact residents of the area for additional donations to the department.

Mrs. Treadin advises that anyone wishing to make a donation to the department may address checks to Pearlington Volunteer Fire Dept., P.O. Box 88, Pearlington.

The general public is invited to the next meeting to be held at 8 p.m. tonight at the Charles B. Murphy School.

Bloodworth, Executive Director.

"Our and all ASCS offices throughout the nation, will function as information centers in all locations outside of highly urbanized areas," Mr. Bloodworth said.

County ASCS offices throughout the United States have been chosen information centers to answer questions from all citizens on President Nixon's Executive Order which is designed to stem inflation and strengthen the national economy.

The Pearl River-Hancock County ASCS Office is receiving official answers to questions concerning the President's action, and any person in Pearl River or Hancock Counties who wants or needs precise information should get in touch with the County Office.

The Pearl River-Hancock County ASCS Office is located at Poplarville, Mississippi. The mailing address is P.O. Box 313, Poplarville, MS. 39470. The telephone number is 769-4932. In charge of the office is Richard H. Bloodworth, County

Executive Director. "Our county offices are not to handle complaints or appeals. They will serve only to provide official information. If a district or sub-district office of the Internal Revenue Service, or a district with interpretation or guesses made by ASCS county office people. They will answer only those questions for which they have been supplied answers. If they don't know the answer to a specific question, they will say so. If a member of the public wants the county office to obtain an answer, the question will go by phone or mail to the nearest IRS district office," Mr. Bloodworth said.

Normal function of ASCS county offices is to administer farm action programs of the U.S. Department of Agriculture on the local level. County Executive Director Bloodworth said ASCS service to farmers will continue without interruption.

Commissioner Stresses Safety

Labor Day signals a long weekend of relaxation for thousands of Mississippians but for the Mississippi Highway Patrol it will be 78 hours of hard work trying to make Mississippi highways safer.

Commissioner of Public Safety, Giles W. Crisler said the last holiday of the summer will find a tremendous number of families on our highways traveling to weekend vacation spots. Past experiences indicate that some of these people will not return from their outing of fun. They will be killed in traffic accidents. In fact, 81 crashes last Labor Day weekend killed 15 people, with 7 losing their life in one accident. The most hazardous location is in the rural area, where 85 percent of the traffic fatalities have occurred this year.

Patrol Chief, J. D. Gardner has made plans to use all available men during this holiday period. Chief said that road blocks would be set up on all major highways coming into the state including the interstates, and safety brochures would be passed out to tourist advising them of our leading causes of accidents where they are occurring and other safety information. Chief said this was the first time that personal contact had been used and hoped that it would make our serve their country and are happy to make the extra effort in this crucial period," he added.

tourist better informed. Enjoy the last holiday weekend of the summer, but don't let your guard down. Drive at speeds that are reasonable, watch out for other driver's incorrect actions, and don't lose your good driving manners.

Capitol Museum Expands Exhibits

The Old Capitol Museum in Jackson has expanded its pioneer wing with the addition of two new permanent exhibits. They are "Woman's World of the 19th Century" and "Pioneer Men."

The Mississippi homemaker of 1971 will notice quite a difference in the type equipment she uses as compared to her 19th Century predecessor. The woman's work seems to have been of a heavier nature as shown in the exhibit are items such as fluting irons, spoon mold, candle molds, butter molds and a sausage stuffer.

Also featured in the exhibit are items suggesting that she spent her leisure time sewing, doing needlework, writing letters and keeping a diary and scrapbook. Three Mississippi women of the 19th century have their published novels displayed: Sherwood Bonner, Eliza Dupuy and Catherine Anne Warfield.

The pioneer men of Mississippi had various trades as seen in the display. Trade tools include items for cotton bailing, shoemaking and carpentry. As a hunter he had equipment including a WIN-

CHESTER RIFLE, SHOT POUCH, POWDER FLASK, HAWK CALLER, HUNTING HORN, KNIFE AND BULLET MOLDS.

According to an invitation in the exhibit, knife and bullet attending balls as early as 1828. Personal items displayed are a home-apron vest, hand-carved pipes, spittoons, razors and a cane.

Kinard Claims Ole Miss Talented

It's like the peddler hawking the football programs yelled, "You can't tell the players without a program."

At Ole Miss, into Billy Kinard's first season with the Johnny Rebs, that old saw rings doubly true.

Not only with the names, but the positioning, as well.

One of Kinard's most recent moves was the transfer of a pair of quarterbacks, first Jimmy Causey to safety, then Larry Brogdon to tight end.

"We do have talent," Kinard acknowledges in discussing prospects for '71, "but a lot of it is young, young, young. And we're still trying to get boys into places where they can play and contribute."

Two berths causing immediate concern are at safety and strong safety, where last year's knee injuries and surgery for Frank McKellar and Ernie Brown has slowed both veterans.

They are expected to play, but not in a hurry.

All of McKellar's mates at safety—and he is a junior letterman—are sophomores.

There's Causey, Jim Winstead and Mickey Frates. At strong safety, Henry Walsh is a junior letterman with Wayne Westerman a rookie.

At tight end, McKellar, Brown and Brogdon are sophomores, while the other two are juniors.

That's only half the story, however, for the 1971 Johnny Rebs.

The offense is the other sector and only three of last season's starters—Jim Poole at tight end, Randy Reed at fullback, tailback and Bobby Knight at tailback—return on offense.

The first game foe is Cal State at Long Beach, known in some quarters as Long Beach State. And the date in Jackson is Sept. 11. Not a lot of time in which to prepare a young, rebuilt outfit for what looms as a strictly first-class foe.

Library Acquires Many New Books

Back to school time in Bay St. Louis also means back to the library for most students.

Your City-County Public Library has acquired a collection this summer which should provide a valuable supplement to the resources of the individual school libraries. Of interest to students is a 1971-20-volume Merit Students Encyclopedia which can be used by students from elementary school through high school.

Also of special interest to high school students is the new Arto-Rosen Career Guidance Series, some forty books providing practical career information about such diverse fields as Beauty Culture, Computer Programming, Forestry, Medicine, Real Estate, Teaching, Welding, and many more.

At the new Waveland Public Library students will find expanded study facilities and additional reference books, including a 1971 World Book Encyclopedia.

This summer 175 children participated in the Summer Reading Club, which ended August 1. The following students received certificates for reading fifteen or more books:

Cancer Prevention Topic Set

Methods of protection against cancer will be emphasized by the American Cancer Society, Mississippi Division, in its exhibit at Health Expo I to be held Oct. 1-3 at the Coliseum in Jackson. The Expo affords a unique opportunity to get information to the citizens of our state, declared Joe R. Bell, representative of the American Cancer Society on the Health Expo I committee.

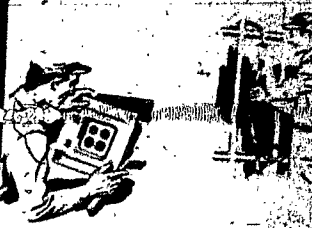

One of the major exhibits features provoking illustrations of Seven Safeguards Against Cancer. These safeguards represent practical ways which offer the greatest opportunity for self-protection and have saved from cancer. Some aim at preventing cancer, others at early detection when chances of cure are best before cancer has spread.

Do-it-yourself Safeguards include: (1) don't smoke cigarettes; (2) avoid overexposure to the sun; (3) for women, monthly breast self-examination; Safeguards which involve an individual and his physician are (4) regular oral examinations for cancer of the mouth; (5) Pap test once a year for all adult women; (6)

"Procto" exam, especially after 30, for all men and women for cancer of the colon-rectum; and (7) an annual health checkup to let you know you're in good health. Other exhibits will zero in on major cancer sites, on the Society's rehabilitation programs, and on Cancer's Seven Warning Signals.

We salute The American Worker LABOR DAY

The first Monday in September is the one day set aside in honor of the working people.

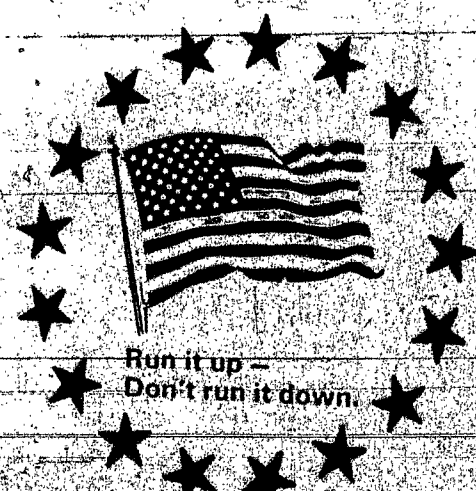

It all started over 80 years ago, when the Knights of Labor decided to call this day Labor Day. Working people then asked for state laws to make LABOR DAY a legal holiday.

Oregon in 1887, was the first state to do so. All others followed. LABOR DAY became a legal holiday in all 50 states. Canada and Australia also observe this holiday.

WE SALUTE the American Worker on this day, for a job well done.

Our nation is rich in natural resources, but the skill of our people who process these materials is what makes us truly a great nation.

Let us resolve to continue our desire to work, where our citizens have the freedom to choose the type of work best suited for them. This desire to work will keep our nation strong.

The Gulf Coast Conference met in the regular fall meeting at Bay Senior High School on August 15, 1977 at 7:30 p.m. with Brother Lee Barker, president, presiding.

Members represented were: Bay St. Louis, Harrison Central, Long Beach, Notre Dame, Ocean Springs, and St. Stanislaus. Each school principal introduced his staff members present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The financial statement was read and accepted. The current balance is $324.89.

The president appointed Coach George Harrison of Harrison Central chairman of the junior high basketball for the current year. There will be a meeting of junior high coaches on September 14 at 7:30 p.m. at Harrison Central.

Members of the executive council were elected as follows: Bobby Jones, George Harrison, Tommy Glass, Vernon Ehlers, Bob Cuccaro, and Charles Hedgewood.

It was moved and seconded to follow the same procedure as last year in selecting the All Conference football and basketball teams. Motion carried.

It was moved and seconded to give the same number of trophies as last year with the exception of tennis trophies. One girl's trophy and one boy's trophy are to be awarded in tennis with a certificate awarded each individual winner in tennis. Motion carried.

The secretary read a letter from St. Stanislaus stating they would not participate in junior high football this year.

A discussion was held regarding changing of dates for next year's football schedule. It was pointed out that the first game would be on September 1 next year if we keep the same schedule. The secretary was advised to place this item on the agenda for final determination at the November meeting.

Vernon Ehlers notified the group that Long Beach would play their home games at 8:00 p.m. this year due to the double shifting in their school.

There was a discussion held regarding the schools playing each other twice each year for basketball seedings. The secretary pointed out that this would require an amendment to the Conference by-laws.

It was moved and seconded that Conference schools have not less than two uniformed officers at all football,

Buy now and Chrysler Corporation will pass on to you any refund of the Federal Excise Tax on cars if, as proposed by President Nixon, it's repealed by Congress. So don't wait.

If you've been holding off on that new car because you're not sure how the proposed repeal of the excise tax affects you, we've got great news.

We have been informed that if Congress repeals the tax, retail purchasers who have taken delivery of new cars between the effective date of retroactivity (President Nixon proposed August 16, 1971) and the date on which the tax is repealed will receive refunds from the Government through Chrysler Corporation of the amount of any excise tax included in the price of the new cars they purchased.

The refund will be made automatically and won't require a claim on your part.

It is estimated that refunds will average approximately $200. This, of course, is only an average with actual amounts depending on the model you select.

Don't wait. We've got a big selection in stock right now. So hurry in now and save on that new car you've been putting off.

KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L.S. (Doc) Elliot

Another week of good weather with very little rain has passed and fishing is improving everyday with bass and perch being caught everywhere on the fly rod and by casting, also on live shrimp, minnows and other live bait such as earth worms, crickets, grasshoppers, tadpoles, etc. The grubs from wasp nests make excellent bait for catching bream and perch, as well as wood sawers which are found in dead trees and old rotten wood.

Speckled trout are still being caught up Jordan River and Bayou La Croix, according to Gene Lauder they are being caught on live shrimp and dead shrimp while fishing on the bottom. Haven't started hitting plugs and Shad Rigs as yet. Shouldn't be long now.

Flounders are being caught most any old way. By still fishing and by spearing them. There seems to be more flounders this year than in former years. Being caught most anywhere. Eddie Poyadou got quite a few with his cast net off the flyway bridge the other night.

Flounders are speared mostly along the seawall to Bayou Caddy and most anywhere along the shoreline, at Heron Bay and in Pearl River proper at Campbell's Bayou, and on the mud flat at the end of the seawall down Cedar Point way.

Doves fly fast and so does the time. The first segment of the dove season opens during the first part of September. Won't be long before we will be after the little darlings in both Mississippi and Louisiana. The morning doves or Turtle Dove as they are familiarly called breed from the Southern Canadian provinces to Mexico.

Their small heads, slim, streamlined bodies and long, pointed tails are distinctive. Food for morning doves is mostly grain.

Carry in the tackle box is a small wet stone or tile. Dull hooks lose a lot of fish.

Hard and soft crabs are not showing much improvement. Very few are being caught lately. May pick up a little later.

A supper meeting of the Bay-Waveland Gun and Rod Club was held Wednesday night, 7:00 p.m. at the American Legion Home. It was well attended and as usual the men in charge of the club did a swell job in preparing them. Keep up the good work, sportsmen. Donald Caldwell is president of the club. All sportsmen are urged and invited to join the organization.

The Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission held its regular monthly public board meeting on Tuesday, August 17. The meeting was set for this date in order that the commission could set the dates for the waterfowl hunting season within the water. The water in Mullato Bayou is beautiful just now. Green trout are hitting like no body's business and some real catches were reported over the week end. They are being caught most anywhere from Kelly's Camp to Cross Bayou.

Dick Mastayer and son, Dick Jr., reported a nice catch of bass in Johnson Pass down Middle River. They were really hitting the old fly rod Dick said.

A special service of Prayer and Thanksgiving for the dedication of Elwood Memorial Park was held at Waveland, Miss. on the occasion of the 2nd anniversary of Hurricane Camille last week. An appropriate program was held at the site of the new amusement park. Of course all sportsmen will enjoy this new facility.

Season tickets also entitle the bearer to all Junior and Senior high home basketball games, with the exception of tournaments.

Many people who don't believe in fighting insist on saying things that make you want to.
